A. Read the following passage and answer the questions.

Edison is a teenager who is my classmate. He always plays tricks on others. There are lots of rumors about him.

- Paul: Oh, Edison! I know him. He is one of my classmates. I saw him smoking outside the school. He encouraged his peers to smoke as well.
- John: I lost my wallet in the changing room last week. Danny told me that he saw Edison was the only person in the changing room at that time. He might be the thief!
- Eva: Do you have any evidence?
- John: No evidence is required. He is the thief. He loves luxury goods. All of them are expensive. He won't have money to buy such goods.
- Mabel: I also heard that Edison took drugs and supplied them to the fellows. Hence, the problem of drug abuse is spreading in the school.
- Eva: You just heard about that. Did you do any fact check?
- Mabel: He must take drugs. He should be the drug trafficker.
- Toby: Oh, really! Edison is really a bad guy, we should isolate him.
- Eva: Edison was my ex-classmate in primary school. He was kind. It seems that he met some gangsters and influenced by them.
