

Possessive Adjectives

A. Fill in the blanks with the given words.

1. I have got a computer.

This is (my / its) computer.

2. Mrs. Tam has got three pairs of shoes.

These are (his / her) shoes.

3. The boys have got ten kites.

These are (their / his) kites.

4. You have got a T-shirt.

This is (our / your) T-shirt.

5. Jason and Martin have got two puppies.

These are (his / their) puppies.

6. Mum and I have got a radio.

This is (my / our) radio.

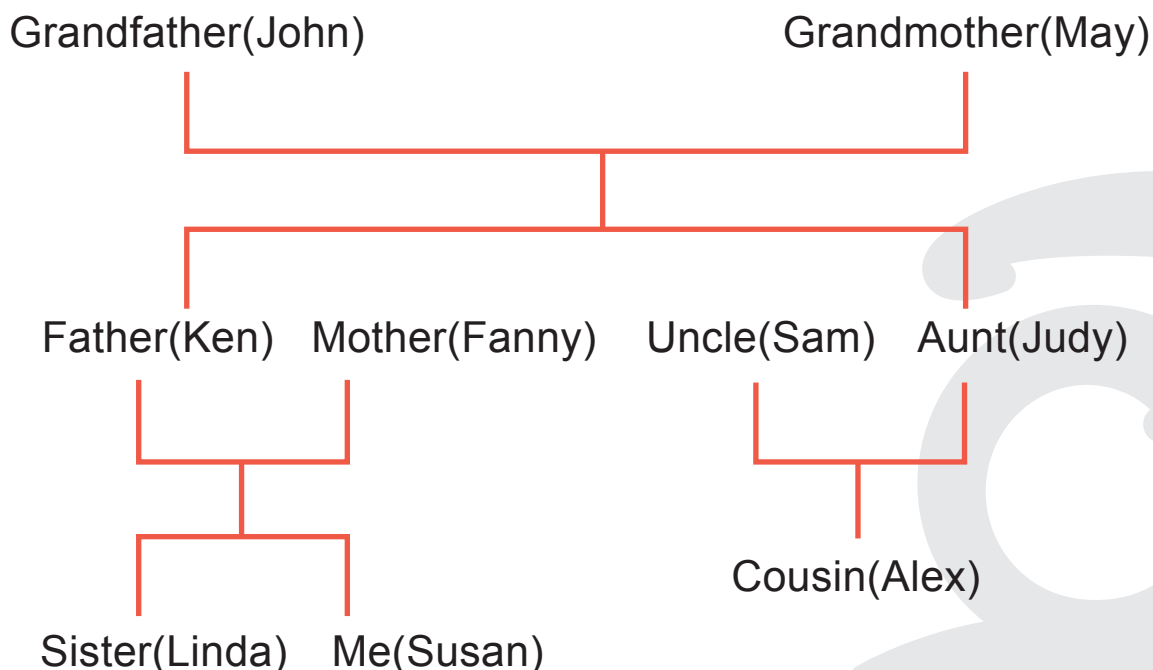

7. Uncle Tim has got a blue car.

This is (his / her) car.

8. The dog has got a bone.

This is (its / his) bone.

B. Look at the family tree. Then complete following sentences with correct pronouns.

Hi! I am Susan.

1. May is (my / her) grandmother.
2. Dad and mum said, 'Linda and Susan are (our / your) daughters.'
3. Alex is Aunt Judy's son. Alex is (your / her) son.
4. Linda is (my / its) younger sister.
5. I am Ken and Fanny's daughter. I am (her / their) daughter.
6. Uncle Sam and Aunt Judy are Alex's parents.
They are (his / our) parents.
7. Dad is Grandpa and Grandma's son. He is (their / her) son
8. Aunt Judy is Dad's sister. Aunt Judy is (his / your) sister.

C. Look at the pictures. Then complete the following sentences as in the example.

umbrella

shoes

ice-cream

flowers

house

watch

boat

books

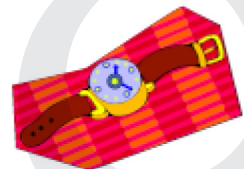

e.g. Mr. Lam has a pair of glasses.

These are his glasses.

1. Mum has got a _____.

This is _____.

2. Uncle Sam has got a _____.

This is _____.

3. Mr. Wong and Mrs. Wong have got some _____.

These are _____.

4. Dad, Mum and I have got a _____.

This is _____.

5. The boy has got some _____.

This is _____.

6. The children have got some _____.

These are _____.

7. The little girl has got a pair of _____.

These are _____.

8. Grandpa has got an _____.

This is _____.

