Adverbs of Quantity

When we want to describe how much of something is present or the intensity of something, we can use Adverbs of Quantity.

| so little For Uncountable Nouns The poor kids have so little food to eat. so many For Countable Nouns There are so many books in the box. so much For Uncountable Nouns Mr Lee has so much money. so much For Countable Nouns Mr Lee has so much money. too few For Countable Nouns We have 10 children but there are too few books for them to share. too little For Uncountable Nouns There is too little time to finish my homework. I can't finish it! too many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. I can't finish it! too many For Countable Nouns There is too many books in the boxes. I can't lift them up. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. The fridge door cannot be closed! enough For Countable Nouns The fridge door cannot be closed! | $0 | so few | For Countable Nouns | The poor kids have so few toys to play. |
|---|------------|------------|------------------------------|--|
| so many For Countable Nouns There are so many books in the box. so much For Uncountable Nouns Mr Lee has so much money. hoo few For Countable Nouns We have 10 children but there are too few books for them to share. hoo few For Uncountable Nouns There is too little time to finish my homework. I can't finish it! hoo many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. hoo many For Countable Nouns There is too little time to finish my homework. I can't finish it! hoo many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. hoo many For Countable Nouns There is too many books in the boxes. hoo much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. hoo much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. hoo much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. hoo much For Countable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. hoe much For Countable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. hoe much For Countable Nouns The fridge door cannot be closed! | | so little | For Uncountable Nouns | The poor kids have so little food to eat. |
| too few For Countable Nouns We have 10 children but there are too few books for them to share. too little For Uncountable Nouns There is too little time to finish my homework. I can't finish it! too many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. too much For Uncountable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. too much For Countable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. There is too much food in the fridge. The fridge door cannot be closed! | | so many | For Countable Nouns | There are so many books in the box. |
| too few For Countable Nouns few books for them to share. too little For Uncountable Nouns There is too little time to finish my homework. I can't finish it! too many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. I can't finish it! too much For Uncountable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. I can't lift them up. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. I can't lift them up. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. The fridge door cannot be closed! enough For Countable We have enough food to eat so we | | so much | For Uncountable Nouns | Mr Lee has so much money. |
| Image: too Image: too <thimage: th="" too<=""> Image: too Image: t</thimage:> | too | too few | For Countable Nouns | We have 10 children but there are too |
| too little For Uncountable Nouns homework. I can't finish it! too many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. too many For Countable Nouns I can't lift them up. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. too much For Countable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. The fridge door cannot be closed! The fridge door cannot be closed! | | | | few books for them to share. |
| too homework. I can't finish it! too many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. I can't lift them up. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. The fridge door cannot be closed! For Countable we have enough food to eat so we | | too little | For Uncountable Nouns | There is too little time to finish my |
| too many For Countable Nouns There are too many books in the boxes. too many For Countable Nouns I can't lift them up. too much For Uncountable Nouns There is too much food in the fridge. The fridge door cannot be closed! The fridge door cannot be closed! enough For Countable We have enough food to eat so we | | | | homework. I can't finish it! |
| Image: Solution of the second state | | too many | For Countable Nouns | There are too many books in the boxes. |
| too much For Uncountable Nouns The fridge door cannot be closed! The fridge door cannot be closed! For Countable We have enough food to eat so we | | | | I can't lift them up. |
| Image: model The fridge door cannot be closed! For Countable enough We have enough food to eat so we | | | For Uncountable Nouns | There is too much food in the fridge. |
| enough | | too much | | The fridge door cannot be closed! |
| | enough | | For Countable | We have enough food to eat so we |
| | | | / Uncountable Nouns | don't need to buy anything. |
| For Countable There is not enough food in the fridge. | not enough | | For Countable | There is not enough food in the fridge. |
| /Uncountable Nouns We need to buy some more. | | | / Uncountable Nouns | We need to buy some more. |

FUNG WING EDUCATION 風穎教育 掃描 QR Code 查閱敎學影片及工作紙答案

Adverbs of Quantity

Fill in the blanks with the most suitable adverbs of quantity.

1. There are ______ books here that you can find some information for your

陪你迎戴呈分

Adverbs of Quantity

homework. You can finish your homework easily.

- 2. There are _____ books here! I can't carry them all at one time.
- 3. I have eaten ______ in the buffet. I am having a stomachache.
- 4. I have eaten ______ in the buffet because the food is really delicious.
- 5. He only puts _______ sugar into his coffee because he likes drinking bitter coffee.
- 6. This coffee is too bitter for me! I think I've put ______ sugar in it.
- 7. There is only ______ people in the park at six o'clock in the morning.
- 8. _____ people are going to attend this interest class, so the class will be cancelled.

9. Alan is very thin. He does not eat ______ food.

10. There is ______ food. We need to buy more for the kids.

11. He is tall ______ to change the bulb without the help of a chair.

12. There is ______ butter in the fridge. You don't need to buy it anymore.

