

Reflexive Pronouns Exercise

On the way to Tai O, Aunt May tells Fanny her childhood. Complete what she says with the words in the box.

herself himself itself myself ourselves themselves yourself yourselves

I lived with my parents and my elder brother in a village when I was small.

Mum was good at cooking and she could cook many traditional dishes

(1) _____. She always said, 'Children, you should know how to cook

(2) _____!' Therefore, my brother and I knew cooking

(3) _____ when we were in Primary 3.

My brother was a creative boy. He could make many toys with paper (4)

_____. I liked playing with paper dolls but I didn't know how to make paper clothes (5) _____. At that time, most girls could make paper clothes (6) _____. My brother always made some paper clothes for me.

Sometimes, we played with my lovely paper dolls (7) _____.

Fanny, do you know how to make toys with paper (8) _____? I think it is good for children nowadays to make toys with paper (9) _____ because it is really interesting.

