

Reading Comprehension

A. Kenny is reading a passage. Help him answer the questions.

Many years ago, it was not common for people to have their own television sets. Only the rich could afford to buy them. People only listened to the news on radios. Now, every family has a television at home. People can watch the news on televisions or they can surf the Internet.

Schools were very small in the old days. Some of them were even built on the roof of buildings. The environment was not good at all. Now, schools are much bigger and there are many facilities such as basketball courts and swimming pools. Students are lucky to have such a good learning environment.

Moreover, children did not have many toys fifty years ago. They played hopscotch or hide-and-seek together. Sometimes, children made little rice bags or bean bags to play with. Nowadays, children have different kinds of toys at home. They can play games on their tablet too!
