A. Read the conversation and answer the below questions in complete sentences and blacken the correct circles.

Daisy: Hi, Joan. I am very happy and excited that I would like to share a great news with you.

Joan: Sure! What is it about?

Daisy: John proposed to me last week.

Joan: Oh! Really! Congratulations, my dearest.

Daisy: Yeah. We would like to have a special ceremony and invite you as my bridesmaid.

Joan: Of course yes, it's my honour. You will have lots of work to do for your special day. Will you appoint any wedding planner?

Daisy: I never thought about it. Can you give me a helping hand?

Joan: It's my pleasure to be your wedding planner as well.

Daisy: Joan, you are so nice. It's great.

Joan: Ok, let's start with the gown. What's your dream gown?

Daisy: Did you watch the movie "Maleficent"? Angelina Jolie is my favourite actress.

I like the black dress of hers and would like to have a similar one on my wedding day. I can't imagine how awesome I am when I put it on.

Joan: What!? No way! You can't wear a black gown on wedding day as it sounds ominous according to Chinese traditional culture.

Daisy: Really? I don't know much as well because I was grown up in America. It's glad that you voice it out. John's family is very old school and I am pretty sure that they won't like it.

Joan: Absolutely, let's call John to have further discussion.

- 1. What is the meaning of "proposed to me"?
- 2. What is the role that Daisy invites Joan to be on the wedding day?
- 3. Why does Joan think that it is impossible to wear a black gown in the wedding day?
